

Covair Structures - fact sheet

Covair press kit · June 2026 · All figures verifiable; for queries contact the press office.

Covair Structures Ltd designs, manufactures and installs air-supported domes and framed fabric structures for sports facilities across the UK. The company has enabled covered sport since 1982 and is headquartered in Redhill, Surrey.

Fast facts

- Established in 1982 - more than 40 years of UK manufacturing.
- The UK's only manufacturer of polyethylene air domes.
- Exclusive UK distributor of DUOL premium air domes.
- More than 200 installations across the UK.
- Three product lines: British-manufactured seasonal air domes; DUOL permanent air domes; framed fabric structures.
- Four service lines: DomeCare (tiered maintenance), DomeClean, DomeCycle and DomeFinance.

The details journalists ask for

- A seasonal air dome is typically installed in 3-4 days on site; order to play is usually 8-12 weeks.
- A permanent air dome typically takes 7-10 days on site; order to play is usually 16-20 weeks.
- Membrane lifespans: polyethylene 10-15 years; PVC 20-30 years, with proper maintenance.
- The DUOL ECO Ultra membrane achieves A-rated energy certification (U-value 0.65 W/m²K).

Selected installations

- Football: Watford FC, Manchester City, Sheffield Wednesday, Plymouth Argyle, Southampton FC.
- Tennis: The Grange Club (Edinburgh), Caesarean Lawn Tennis Club (Jersey), Billericay Lawn Tennis Club (Essex), Virgin Active Northwood; David Lloyd Clubs operates 35 Covair domes across its estate.
- Education: Millfield School (Somerset), Clifton College (Bristol), the University of Essex, St Helens School (Northwood), Cox Green School (Maidenhead).

Interviews and spokespeople

Ben Stephenson, Managing Director - the UK covered-sport market, club economics, partnerships and industry trends. Technical specialists are available for engineering and product questions. All interviews are arranged through the press office.

Press office

Richard Wolfe, PR Manager

press@covair.co.uk · +44 (0)1883 743988

Press centre, imagery and fact sheet: covair.co.uk/category/press-centre/

Protect the asset. Extend the life. Keep the game on.